LIFE SENTENCE FOR KIDNAPPER

Boyle's Wife Gets 25 Years and $5000 Fine.

MAKE SENSATIONAL CHARGES

Boyle Accuses Harry Forker, Mrs. Whitla's Brother, of Murder, and Says He Suggested the Kidnapping to Pay Blackmail—Declares Whitla Offered Him Protection If He Shielded Forker.

Pittsburg, May 11. — Locked and bolted in separate cells, the man to spend his life within the bleak and grim walls of the western penitentiary, the woman to remain at least fifteen years and perhaps a quarter of a century, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Boyle, kidnappers of "Willie" Whitla, began to suffer the maximum punishment possible to impose for their offense.

Boyle's only hope of freedom lies in the remote possibility of a pardon. Mrs. Boyle, convicted as "Mary Doe," the name given by the law to designate "an unidentified person," was sentenced to serve twenty-five years and to pay a fine of $5000 and the costs of prosecution. But since it has been customary to "forget" the fines and costs imposed upon a state prisoner, it is assumed that these penalties will be waived and that the woman, should she earn a legal reduction of her sentence, will be released after fifteen years.

Sensations followed each other thick and fast. The severity of the sentence appalled Mercer, where it was pronounced, and surprised many elsewhere, who had not anticipated the extreme limit of the law. Then came the sensational scene in the courtroom, when both prisoners collapsed and had to be carried from the room. Hardly had they reached their cells when the word was given out that the woman had taken poison during the night before and had narrowly escaped death at her own hand, and that a razor had been found concealed in Boyle's clothing. Before this thrill had lost its force, Boyle gave out his statement, implicating Harry Forker, brother of Mrs. Whitla, in the kidnapping case. In Mercer and Sharon the story does not seem to be generally credited, and as the district attorney has no faith in it there is little likelihood of any formal action in the matter.

Boyle's Accusation.

Boyle's statement follows:

The complete history of the kidnapping of Willie Whitla, the origin of same and what led up to it.

On the morning of ——, between the hours of ——, Dan Reeble, Jr., was found dead on the sidewalk in front of the Mauser block, East Federal street, in Youngstown, and over the prostrate form was Mr. Harry Forker, of Sharon, Pa., holding in his right hand a package of letters that was gathered from the sidewalk near the dead body of Mr. Reeble.

As he was about to depart from the vicinity he was intercepted by the writer and a man who has since passed to his reward, Mr. Dan Shay, a saloonkeeper of Oak street, Youngstown, Ohio.

In Mr. Forker's hurry to leave the scene he failed to find two envelopes that contained four letters. The same were picked up by Mr. Shay and later taken to his place of business on Oak street.

The writer and Mr. Shay examined and read the contents of same, which proved beyond a doubt the presence of Mr. Forker there at that time.

Claims Blackmail Succeeded.

The letters were written by a lady, two from a party in New York state and the others from Cleveland, Ohio. At a later date Mr. Forker was apprised of the fact that the writer held these letters in his possession and asked if he could use the same. A letter was immediately sent the writer by Mr. Forker, stating that (Mr. Forker) would like to have a personal talk with the writer, which meeting took place a day or so after. Mr. Forker acknowledged he would pay a sum of money for the possession of said letters. The amount not being considered sufficient, was refused, and from that day on and up until March, 1908, the writer, on the pretext of exposing the letters and the coincidence of Mr. Forker being discovered bending over the prostrate form of Mr. Reeble, had receievd at different times amounts of money from Mr. Forker to remain silent.

About six months ago, when I returned to Sharon with my wife, I met Mr. Forker on East State street and informed him that unless I received $5000 between then and the time I intended to leave Sharon I would hold the secret no longer.

He then informed me that it was impossible for him to get that amount of money, but some time in April, 1909, he was to come in possession of a certain amount of money and would then turn some over to me, which was satisfactory at that time.

On my leaving Sharon, on March 12, 1909, I proceeded to Cleveland, Ohio, and on the same evening I addressed to Mr. Forker, 249 East State street, Sharon, a letter which read as follows:

"Mr. Harry Forker: Dear Sir—I have decided not to wait any longer in regard to the money proposition, and if I don't hear from you soon there will be some exposing. Sincerely yours,

"J. J. BAILEY, Cleveland, Ohio."

Letter Without Signature.

On March 16, 1909, I received an answer to the same, which read:

"Friend Bailey—You know that the circumstances and the promise I made you when you left here, but if you are really desperately in need of money as you profess to be, I will outline a little plan which, with your co-operation, can be very successfully carried out, viz.: the abduction of J. P. Whitla's son. I can arrange to have the boy brought to Warren, Ohio, due there at 11.18, with escort."

(There is no signature to the letter.)

I left Cleveland at 8.15 a. m. and arrived at Warren at 10.05 a. m., then proceeded to Niles, Ohio, by street car. I boarded an Erie train and arrived at Warren at 11.18 a. m., but failing to see the boy and his escort, I got off at Warren and remained in the vicinity of the depot.

About ten minutes later boy and escort arrived, and I was then informed that they drove from Sharon to Warren. I informed party to take boy up along Pittsburg & Western track, leave him there and that I would attend to the rest of it, and which he proceeded to do.

After making inquiries as to the next train to Cleveland, I brought the boy to Niles, Ohio, from there to Ashtabula and then to Cleveland. On March 22 I received a letter from Mr. Forker stating that some one had informed Mr. Whitla that they had recognized his boy on March 18 in Niles, Ohio, and that James Boyle, of Sharon, was with him; also that Mr. Whitla was afraid to divulge the information for fear the boy might come to some harm and telling me to be careful and be on the alert, and that when I received the money to immediately surrender those Youngtown letters, to send same to him, Mr. Forker, at Sharon, and on Tuesday, April 23, to return half of the ransom money to him, Mr. Forker, and he would turn over the same to the party who took Willie Whitla to Warren.

Says He Was Promised Protection.

Upon learning that my name was mentioned in connection with the case, I made it a point to meet Mr. Whitla personally in Cleveland at Fifty-third street and St. Clair avenue; showed him the letter that passed between Mr. Forker and myself; also the Youngstown letters, and Mr. Whitla promised that if I would substantiate the truth of the Youngstown letters he would see there would be no prosecution.

I then surrendered through Mr. Whitla all the letters that were in my possession, and the world knows the result. I was arrested, and convicted, and deprived by my own counsel of telling my story on the stand. I informed my wife the boy was brought in order to escape being quarantined in the pest house and we were to be handsomely rewarded for taking care of him.

This unfortunate woman was duped from start to finish in regard to the boy, and I was duped from the moment I left the letters go into Mr. Whitla's possession. As my counsel afterwards informed me, I had nothing to show or to prove, and that it was a matter of veracity—their word against mine. I had given up every scintilla I had, and now I am settled for. This story is as true as there is a God above us.

SHARON ASTOUNDED

Community Greatly Excited Over Boyle's Statement.

Sharon, Pa., May 11.—All Sharon was astounded when the statement made by James Boyle implicating Harry Forker in the Whitla kidnapping and using his name in connection with an alleged murder in Youngstown. Mr. Forker declared the intimations, although without the slightest foundation, were not new to him, as he had understood for some time such a statement was threatened. He said the story is a wilful and malicious lie.

Mr. Whitla was greatly vexed when he learned of the publication of the statement. He pronounced the whole story a malicious falsehood.

The community is excited even more than it was on the day of the kidnapping.

As this is the home of Boyle he has some friends who give credit to his tale, but the greater part of the community hesitates about giving credence to the story involving a respected member of the community, especially when the only charge against him is an unsupported statement of a convicted felon.

Fruit Not Frozen.

From present indications the fruit crop in this section was not damaged to any great extent by the recent cold weather, although for three consecutive mornings the thermometer fell below the freezing point. Throughout the town early cherry and peach trees are filled with buds and their fragrance and general appearance everywhere indicates that they survived the frost. Leaves of some trees are now filling out while the gardens have been given an impetus that only warmth can give.

Generally in this section there is a late spring caused by the unseasonable weather of the past few weeks, but with the mercury hovering about the eighties, nature will assert itself in due time. The buds on apple, pear and other late trees are not yet out and consequently are not at all injured, even though a portion of the early fruit might have been nipped slightly. Appearances at present indicate in immense crop of the early fruits, providing no adverse conditions hereafter present themselves.

CAPT. HAINS FOUND GUILTY

Slayer of Annis Convicted of Manslaughter.

PENALTY ONE TO TWENTY YEARS

Counsel For Defense Will Ask For a New Trial on Ground That Jury Had Not Been Properly Guarded During the Trial.

Flushing, N. Y., May 12.—Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., U. S. A., faces a prison term of from one to twenty years. Despite all the testimony submitted by the defense as tending to show insanity, he was convicted of manslaughter in the first degree for killing William E. Annis at the Bayside Yacht club last August.

Quickly following the young army officer's conviction, his counsel announced that they would produce affidavits to show that the jury had not been properly guarded during the trial, and upon this allegation will urge that a new trial be granted. These affidavits will be submitted on Monday, the time set for passing sentence and for any motions that the defendant's counsel desires to make. There will, of course, be the usual motions to set aside the verdict as against the weight of evidence and contrary to law, but the unguarded jury feature is the only departure from the streotyped procedure looking to a new trial.

Daniel O'Reilly, of counsel for the defense, said:

Jury Permitted to Roam.

"There was no evidence in this case to warrant a verdict of manslaughter. It should either have been murder in the first degree or acquittal on the grounds of insanity. The jurors were permitted to roam about the county in an automobile and go right to the verge of the scene of the homicide, which is clearly against the law. We will have affidavits to prove that such is the case, and also that the jurors were permitted to leave the jurisdiction of the county and to have been on government property at Fort Totten, all of which will be urged as a ground for setting aside the verdict."

No one was more surprised than District Attorney Dewitt, who had said all he could hope for was a disagreement.

As he heard the decision of the jurors Hains' face was as white as chalk. He stood for a few moments motionless, staring at the jury after he heard the verdict. A few moments later, apparently little affected by the verdict, he walked from the courtroom with a steady stride between his two lawyers and was taken back to the Queens county jail.

In striking contrast to the demeanor of the prisoner was the grief of his aged father, General Peter C. Hains, and his brother, Major John Power Hains. For a minute they sat as if dazed, then broke down and wept. The captain's aged mother, who was such a pitiful figure in court during the trial, was not in court, having returned to New York. General Hains, however, quickly communicated the verdict to her over the telephone.

Prayer Caused Mistrial.

Mount Vernon, Ga., May 12.—Following a prayer at the opening of the court's session, offered by Rev. Joe McDaniel, a relative of W. C. Beasley, for whose alleged murder Jordan Swain is on trial here, the defense in the case at once moved for a mistrial and it was granted. Rev. McDaniel in his prayer asked compassion for Swain, referring to him as a "man whose hands are stained by the blood of his fellow man."

NEW ATHLETIC FIELD DEDICATED.

Sprague of the Academy Wins the Individual Record and Scholarship at the Sports.

The opening of the new athletic field at the State College on Friday was made the occasion of an event in the College life as well as in the Athletic World of Penna and marked a new era which will benefit the College not only in Athletic but the College itself, in the bringing there of many embroyo young men and giving them a taste of the beauties of the place and settle their minds where to go to college, when they finish their courses at their high schools and academies.

The main feature of the occasion was the holding of an Inter-scholastic Athletic Field Meet on the new field in which all the preparatory, high schools and academies in the state were invited to participate. A good many accepted, and finally ten sent teams to compete. The Bellefonte Academy had not expected to attend, but Coach Hall at the earnest request of the State people but ten days ago started to whip some of his boys in shape for some of the events and right well did he do as the records show and had there been a couple of weeks more training accorded them and had they had a track to work on they would have undoubtedly carried off first place.

In points the meet was won by Dickinson Seminary of Williamsport with a score of 20 points; second Middletown high school 21 points and Bellefonte Academy third with 20 points to their credit the rest of the scores being as follows: Juniata high 15, Milton high, 14, Altoona high 13, Danville high 12, Berwick high 8, DuBois high 5, and Radnor high 0. Many of the contestants from other places especially Dickinson Seminary showed the good long training that they had. Coach Hall entered in but nine of the thirteen events and captured points in seven of the nine truly a commendable record. The points made by the Academy boys were as follows; Sprague second in 440 yard dash, Yocum second in 2 mile run, Dillon fourth in ½ mile, Dillon third in the shot put, Sprague second in the broad jump and he also took first in the running high jump and third in the 220 yards dash with Sleppy fourth in the 220.

This made a total of 13 points for Sprague the best individual score, the next nearest being ten points and won for him a scholarship offered by the college for the best individual record which is certainly something to be quite proud of. With care the boy will certainly have a great future before him in Athletics but he will have to be careful of his heart in the earlier stages of his training for the runs. He could have done much better Friday had he had a little more training but the many events made him tired at the last and he lost place that he would have had otherwise. In the high jump he made 5 feet 1 inch and in the broad jump 18 feet 8 inches, having done a foot better the day before in the latter, but it was the last event on the programme and he was very tired. The Academy can certainly feel proud of the record made and field athletics will undoubtedly be a part of her school work next year. A cinder path will be built on the football field and the accessories purchased to equip themselves to be able to participate in all the events for the next time. The medals were very neat and pretty and were given for the first three places and were made of gold, silver and bronze respectively.

Ex-speaker of the House of Representatives Frank McClain of Lancaster made the principal address of the day in the dedication exercises and it was very appropos and was thoroughly appreciated by the students and visitors of which there were a great number. A baseball game followed the Athletic meet between Dickinson and State which was won by State after an exciting contest by the score of 6 to 4.

Mrs. Emanuel Noll.

On Wednesday evening just before midnight the angel of death entered the Noll home on North Allegheny street and called hence to the glory land the loving wife and mother, Sarah Catherine, wife of Emanuel Noll. She had been ill since January 1st with a complication of diseases.

The deceased was the daughter of John B., and Nancy Thomas and was born at Milesburg 64 years ago. She was married to Emanuel Noll who survives her with the following children: Mrs. Chauncey F. York, of Detroit, Michigan; John, of Altoona, and Rebie, at home.

She also leaves one brother, William B. Thomas, of Milesburg, Pa.

The deceased was a lovely christian woman and the last surviving member of the old original Presbyterian church at Milesburg.

The funeral took place from the family residence on Allegheny street Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

PROTEST AGAINST HIGHER FARES

Abolition of Six For a Quarter Tickets Stirs Philadelphia.

MAY TAKE LEGAL ACTION

Town Meeting Adopted Resolutions Demanding Restoration of Tickets and the Resignation of City's Representatives on Board of Directors of the Transit Company.

Philadelphia, May 11.—A town meeting similar to the famous meeting of 1905, which led to a political revolution in this city, was held at the Academy of Music to protest against the increase in street car fares caused by the abolition of six for a quarter tickets. The academy was crowded to its capacity of more than 3000, and about 15,000 persons, who were unable to secure admission, held overflow meetings on the outside.

Resolutions were adopted calling for the immediate restoration of the tickets and the removal of State Senator Clarence Wolf and William H. Carpenter as representatives of the city on the board of directors of the Rapid Transit company. A committee of prominent citizens was apopinted to notify the mayor, councils and the transit company of the action taken at the meeting. This committee was also directed to take legal action against the company. Before the meeting there were parades of indignant citizens from all sections of the city to the place of meeting. In some instances these parades consisted of only 200 or 300 persons, but two large bodies of about 3000 marchers respectively marched on Broad street from the northern and southern sections of the city. In spite of the large crowds and the feeling aroused there was no act of disorder.

The Philadelphia Rapid Transit company is a holding company, which controls all the street car lines in this city. In 1907 it entered into an agreement with the city by which, among other provisions, the company agreed that there should be no increase in the rate of fare. Subsequently it curtailed the use of exchange tickets, which had been sold for 3 cents with a 5 cent fare, but issued strip tickets, which were sold at six for 25 cents. A bill in equity was brought by the city to restrain the company from limiting its use of the exchange tickets, but the court decided in an opinion, which was upheld by the state supreme court, that the rate of fare was 5 cents straight, and that the company could make whatever transfer regulations it chose if it did not exceed this rate. The company's directors took advantage of this opinion to abolish the sale of the strip tickets, and State Senator Clarence Wolf, William H. Carpenter and Mayor Reyburn, the city's representatives at the meeting, did not protest against the action.

CZAR'S PREMIER MAY RESIGN

Reported That Stolypin Will Go Out and Goremykin Return to Office.

St. Petersburg, May 11. — A close relative of Premier Stolypin declared that the retirement of the premier was imminent, as he had resolved to decline the emperor's request that he remain in office.

It was rumored in the douma that a telegram already has been sent to former Premier Goremykin, who is at Wiesbaden, bidding him return to St. Petersburg to assume the premiership and the portfolio of foreign affairs. This report, however, cannot be confirmed.

A $10,000 BLAZE.

Bellefonte Central Engine House and Contents Burned.

What proved to be a very disastrous fire occurred Saturday morning between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock at the Bellefonte Central Railroad shops at Coleville. Gus Wion, the night watchman was making his customary round of inspection about 3 o'clock when he discovered a blaze near the roof in one corner of the engine room. He at once turned in the alarm, but at that time in the morning everyone is sleeping soundly and it was some time before anyone reached the scene to render him assistance. The fire spread with great rapidity and soon the big building was all ablaze. Seven engines were in the building and they succeeded in removing two out of harm's way. Four of the engines belonged to Wilson & Co., of Philadelphia, and three to the Bellefonte Central. Of the engines saved one belongs to the railroad company and one to Wilson and Co. The reason they were able to save these engines was because they had steam up at the time.

The Logan Fire Company of Bellefonte responded as promptly as possible and on reaching the scene set to work and by their splendid efforts succeeded in confining the fire to the engine house and saving the company's big machine and car shops.

The engine house which was totally destroyed was a big frame building 50x150 feet. A large number of tools were destroyed besides the engines.

It is estimated the total loss on engines, machinery and building will be close to $10,000 partially covered by insurance.

The fire is said to have been caused by spontaneous combustion. The Railroad Company request us to thank the Logan Fire Company on their behalf for the prompt and efficient service rendered.

Death of Mrs. Catherine Wagner.

Mrs. Catherine Wagner, widow of Jacob D. Wagner, died suddenly at her home in Altoona, at 11.30 o'clock Saturday night of paralysis. JAMES BOYLE'S TRIAL BEGUN

Jury to Try Whitla Kidnapper Quickly Secured.

TRIAL WON'T LAST LONG

It Is Believed It Can Be Concluded This Week—About Fifty Witnesses to Be Heard, But Their Testimony Will Be Brief.

Mercer, Pa., May 6. — James H. Boyle, charged with the abduction of Willie Whitla, of Sharon, Pa., was placed on trial here. The following jury has been selected temporarily: C. Heckman, farmer; Farnk Gearhart, farmer; Solomon Kugler, farmer; Alexander McKay, retired; Dale Pringle, clerk; Andrew Richards, farmer; Floyd Gilkey, farmer; Howard May, farmer; Joseph Winters, clerk; Thomas Shannon, farmer; William Micklin, teacher, and D. J. Franz, miller.

Little difficulty was experienced in securing the jury. Each man was closely questioned and only twenty-seven were examined before the box was filled. It is believed the trial can be concluded before the end of the present week. There are from forty to fifty witnesses for the state and several for the defense, but the testimony of most of them will be brief.

The prosecution secured the following statement:

"Holy Family church, 417 West Twelfth street, Chicago, Ill.

"On the fourth day of February, 1905, I united in the bonds of matrimony Edward Shaeffer and Anna McDermott in this city, in the presence of John Butler and Mary Middleman, dispensation of differing religions having been obtained.

"G. A. GONZER, S. J.

"I certify that the above obstract is correct. W. J. PETERS, S. J."

Rev. Father Gonzer is now stationed at Toledo, and T. C. Cochran for the prosecution made an effort to have him come here to try to identify Mrs. Boyle as the woman he had united in marriage to Shaeffer, but he positively declined to come.

Believing that they could show that Mrs. Boyle is not legally married to James H. Boyle, the prosecution has had her summoned as a witness for the state against Boyle. But the refusal of the priest to attempt the woman's identification has put a stop to their efforts in this line.

ACTOR GUILTY OF MURDER

First Degree Verdict Against Chester S. Jordan, Who Killed His Wife.

Cambridge, Mass., May 5.—Chester S. Jordan was found guilty by a jury in the Middlesex county court in the first degree on a charge of murdering his wife. Jordan showed no emotion, but three women among the spectators in court fainted.

The penalty for first degree murder in this state is death in the electric chair.

Jordan was a vaudeville actor, and was charged with the murder of his wife, Honora Jordan, at Somerville, Sept. 1 last. It is alleged that during a quarrel Jordan killed his wife by striking her on the head with a flat-iron and that he afterward dismembered the body to conceal the crime.

Portions of the body were found in a trunk at a lodging house in Boston through the suspicions of a cabman who moved the trunk for Jordan. The woman's head was discovered later in the furnace at her home, and other portions of the body were found in a washtub. The police assert that Jordan confessed the crime.

Jordan is a brother-in-law of Jesse L. Livermore, a New York cotton operator, and it is understood that the Livermore wealth was used in Jordan's defense.

CHILDREN KILLED PICKING FLOWERS

Mangled by Train at Crossing Near Wyoming, Del.

Dover, Del., May 5.—Two children, Willie Fossett, aged fourteen years, and Nellie Marker, aged twelve, were struck by the northbound express on the Delaware railroad below Wyoming. The boy was crushed and hurt internally, while the little girl had one arm and one leg completely severed.

The children were picking flowers near Hill's crossing, which is not guarded by a flagman. A freight train had just passed, and they started across the track, unaware of the proximity of the approaching express, that was hidden by a curve. Just as they stepped upon the track the train bore down upon them, and in an instant their lives were crushed out.

The children were on their way to school at the time of the accident. Nearby some section hands were at work, and one of them was the father of the little girl victim. He was completely overcome on learning the horrible fate of his child.

BOY FOUND UNCONSCIOUS

Was In Culvert Three Days Without Food or Water.

Pittsburg, May 5.—Missing three days and searched for by citizens of half a dozen towns, Michael, the six-year-old son of Michael Sinco, a miner employed at the Clinton mines, was found lying unconscious at the bottom of a culvert near his father's home.

The child had been without food and water during all the time he was missing. After a physician had worked with him for hours it was announced that the lad would live.

BOYLE GUILTY; WIFE ON TRIAL

Whitla Kidnapper Throws Himself on Mercy of Court.

FACES LIFE TERM IN PRISON

Mrs. Boyle Was Immediately Placed on Trial and Took Prominent Part In Selecting Jury, Preferring Young, Unmarried Men—Miss Ella Boyle, Sister of Abductor, the First Witness.

Mercer, Pa., May 7.—James Boyle, charged with kidnapping "Billy" Whitla, was convicted after a trial lasting but a few hours. No defense was made and the jury was out but a few minutes. Mrs. Boyle, indicted under the name of Mary Doe, with half a dozen aliases, was immediately placed upon trial, charged with aiding and abetting the kidnapping.

The first witness called by the state in Mrs. Boyle's case was Miss Ella Boyle, a sister of James Boyle. Apparently, from the line of questioning, the prosecution wanted to prove by her that the kidnapping conspiracy was formed while Mrs. Boyle was visiting in Sharon with her husband and that she was implicated in it. It is surmised the object of this is to overcome her contention that she could not have violated a law in this state while she was living in Ohio.

From the earnestness with which the defense opposed the questions asked it is believed a great deal will depend upon the court's decision as to the admissibility of the testimony in dispute. Mrs. Boyle took a prominent part in the selection of her jury, prompting her attorneys in numerous cases and evidencing a preference for young, unmarried jurors.

Boyle Offered No Defense.

That Boyle's trial came to such an abrupt ending, immediately after the state had rested, was due to the fact that so strong a case had been made against him. From the night before the abduction, when he was seen in Sharon, till the time of his arrest in Cleveland, almost every movement he made was testified to by one or more witnesses. A man who hired him a horse and buggy, another who saw Boyle driving with "Billy" in the buggy, the barber who saw the two together and shaved Boyle's moustache off, train and electric railway conductors who saw the couple on their way to Cleveland and identified them in court, all told stories which fitted in perfectly with that of "Billy" Whitla and left no doubt as to the part Boyle had taken in the case.

When the state rested, counsel for the defense held a conference and announced that they would offer no evidence. The court at once summed up the evidence, gave the case to the jury and a verdict was agreed upon in a few minutes.

The penality is from one year to a life sentence in the penitentiary. Sentence has not been pronounced yet.

FOUR DROWN IN NANTICOKE

River Tragedy Said to Be Due to a Quarrel Over Whiskey.

Seaford, Del., May 7.—Word was received that three men and one woman were drowned in the Nanticoke river within six miles of here, just below Woodland. It is supposed they were colored people from Maryland on their way here to pick berries.

The three men were fighting over a bottle supposed to contain whiskey and upset the small craft. Before help could reach them all four were drowned. Their bodies have not been recovered.

The New Public School Building.

EDITOR DAILY NEWS:

While it is proper to provide ample and fit accommodations for the education of the children in public schools yet the method of so doing should be regular and legal.

We do not propose to enter into a discussion of the indebtedness of the Borough at present, and whether the increased indebtedness will exceed the constitutional limit or not.

But the School Board should be open and frank in its dealings. The question of any taint of favoritism, should be wholly free from any of its actions.

We are advised that the bids for excavation and concrete work were as follows:

L. Wallace bid for excavation 40c per yd
" " " concrete work $4.31 "
Rhoads and Knisely, excavation 40c "
" " concrete $4.54 "
Jas. McCafferty, excavation 44c "
" " concrete $3 25 "
A Schad for excavation 52c per yard
" " concrete $3.65 " "
Haupt for excavation 50c per yard
" " concrete $5.30 per yard

The contract was given to Wallace Knisely and Rhoads for excavation 40c per yard. and concrete $4.00 per yard, making the contract for excavation and concrete an average of $4.40 per yard. The bid of A. Schad for excavation and concrete would amount to $4.17 per yard, a difference of 23cts per yard in favor of Mr. Schads bid.

If the Board expect to secure proper competition in bidding on further work, by responsible parties, would it not be best to be understood that the letting would go to the lowest responsible bidder, who could give bonds for the fulfillment and performance of the contract.

State's Faculty After Athletes.

State College, May 5.—The beautiful Ed. L. Stevenson cups for interclass wrestling have arrived here and have been awarded to Neidig, Brown, McEntire, Meade and Lesh, all of the sophomore class. The Pittsburger who annually gives these five prizes to the winners of the interclass wrestling bouts, graduated here in 1892 and is one of a strong coterie of Pittsburg alumni whose interest in State athletics has materially aided the White and Blue in maintaining her wonderful athletic record.

On account of scholastic deficiency Ferguson, the varsity right fielder, was not permitted to accompany the team to Ithaca, and the same reason kept Berry, the fastest quarter-miler Penn State has, from going to the Pennsylvania relays.

The final cut in the varsity baseball squad leaves the following men still on the team: catchers, Vorlis and Thomas; pitchers, Lynch, Skemp and Leidich; infielders, Capt. Hickman, Kelly, Blythe and Eberlein; outfielders, Workman, McCleary, Ferguson, Carson and Bray. The change of Eberlein to Carson's place at third was a good one, since Eberlein is a more natural infielder and Carson can be used in the outer garden, where his hitting ability makes him a valuable man.

"Pat" Maurhoff's track team will meet Dickinson at Carlisle next Saturday and the Indians in the same town on Monday.

October 12th is Columbus Day.

There's a new holiday. All you who have been struggling along 365 days every year, with only 52 Sundays, one New Year's day, Lincoln's birthday, spring election day, Washington's birthday, Good Friday, Easter, Memorial day, Fourth of July, Labor day, fall election day, Thanksgiving day, Christmas and your annual vacation are one step farther away from slavery. Here is another day from your almost unceasing labors for rest. The new holiday is Columbus day, October 12th breaking up that long stretch of working days between the first Monday in September and the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. The last legislature passed a bill making the day a legal holiday, in commemoration of the day Columbus discovered America and Governor Stuart signed the bill Thursday. There's a holiday now on an average of every 30 days.

GRAFTERS GET JAIL SENTENCES

Convicted Men Appeal and Are Released on Bail.

COUNCILMEN HARDEST HIT

Former Pittsburg Solons Must Pay Heavy Fines and Serve Terms In Penitentiary—Former Bank President Receives Punishment For Bribing City Fathers.

Pittsburg, May 6.—Judge Robert S. Frazer pronounced sentences on the councilman and others recently convicted of bribery.

Councilman Joseph C. Wasson was fined $500 and sentenced to one and one-half years in the penitentiary; Councilman John F. Klein, $1500 fine and three and one-half years in the penitentiary; Councilman William Brand, $500 fine and one and one-half years in the penitentiary; W. W. Ramsey, former banker, $1000 fine and one and one-half years in the penitentiary; Henry M. Bolger, a hotelkeeper, $500 fine and two years in the penitentiary.

August A. Vilsack, the banker, who aided the prosecution, has not yet been sentenced.

Judge Frazer also pronounced sentence on John Colbert and Charles Colbert, who received two years for embracery. It was charged that they attempted to tamper with a juror during the trial of the former banker, Ramsey.

Klein was common councilman from the First ward. On the charge of bribery he was sentenced to pay a fine of $1000 and two years in the penitentiary. On the conspiracy charge he was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and spend a year and six months in jail. Bolger, the Water street hotel and saloon keeper, was Klein's aid in his grafting transactions.

Brand was formerly president of the common council. Ramsey was formerly president of the German National bank, and the charge against him was bribery. Vilsack, who pleaded nolle contendre to the charge of bribery, was formerly cashier of the German National bank.

All the men sentenced, with the exception of the two Colberts, applied at once to the superior court and asked for writs of supersedeas. Bail was fixed in each case except Bolger's at $15,000, and in his at $10,000.

The writs were granted after several hours' consideration. It was for this reason that District Attorney Blakeley did not call A. Vilsack, the former banker, for sentence, as he considered such action would be an injustice to the only man who saved the county money by admitting his guilt. If Vilsack were sentenced he would be sent to prison immediately and could not have recourse to the action that will secure the others temporary freedom.

THEY'RE BLONDES NOW

Student Put Peroxide In Bottle Which Usually Contained Bay Rum.

Ithaca, N. Y., May 6.—A prank of a student at the Cascadilla Preparatory school here has caused an epidemic of masculine blondes during the past few days. The student missed a great deal of bay rum used for toilet purposes.

Suspecting his classmates in the dormitory, he refilled his bottle with peroxide of hydrogen. As a result the guilty ones were transformed into peroxide blondes when they appeared in classes.

Two who formerly had jet black hair are blondes, while another with red hair is adorned with locks of silvery whiteness. Some have shaved their heads to kill all trace of the bleach.

GAVE GIRL ACID IN WHISKY

Rejected Lover Then Takes Fatal Dose Himself—Dying In Buggy.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 6. — Arthur Stitt and Miss Lesta Stroud were found dying in a buggy in Central avenue. Stitt, it is believed, had given the young woman carbolic acid with whiskey and then had taken a dose of the poison himself. Both died in a short time after they were found.

The tragedy is believed to have been the result of Stitt being spurned by the girl.

An Able and Clear Answer to Citizen of Thursday on School Board.

The communication signed citizen on the front page of the Daily News is laughable in its ignorance displayed in handling figures and in trying to refle t on the school board who did the right thing in giving the work to reliable contractors. The concrete foundation work should be of the best in that filled ground and can't afford to be cheapened in the least as the building to be erected upon it will depend largely for its safety and beauty on foundations that will stand.

But to the figures the party who writes the articles takes the excavation figures and adds to the concrete figures and makes it all one, and then finds a difference in favor of somebody else. The fallacy of that is ridiculous as the excavating will amount to several times the amount of the concrete work in cubic yards so that the aggregate amount would be much less in the case the way the present contract is let than it would be in the other.

The school Board showed good judgement in the letting of this contract as they did and if the same judgement is used throughout in the contract work letting there will be no question of a satisfactory building. There judgement is questioned a little though on the right to build and the extra debt that will have to be contracted for but that is a question they will have to answer to the people for.

Russell Conwell and Hats.

Rev. Russell H. Conwell, D. D., the well known lecturer, is having his troubles with the "peach basket" hats. When he mildly suggested to his congregation in the Baptist temple in Philadelphia that it might be the right thing for the ladies to remove their extraordinary headgear in church as they are accustomed to doing in the theatre, nobody paid the slightest attention. The next Sunday there were more and greater "peach baskets" than before. The pastor repeated the admonition with a little added emphasis, venturing a suggestion about other people's feelings, the proprieties of the service, etc. But noses only went a little higher and hats remained.

Last Sunday he announced rather coldly that women wearing the objectionable hats would henceforth be required to occupy the rear seats, and that the ushers would enforce the rule.

Next Sunday will tell the tale. Dr. Conwell is a man of firm determination, and he is up against a set of very determined women. Certainly the orders to place the big hats in the back seats will be resisted to the uttermost. For how could anyone ever see them away back there? And that is what "peach baskets" are for.

"Old-Fashioned" Girls wanted

Bachelors and widowers to the number of more than 100 made appeals for wives Sunday night through the Rev. Dr. Vaughan at Halstead Street Institutional church, Chicago. The letters of many of the yearning swains were read to an appreciative congregation by the pastor of the church.

Dr. Vaughan preached his regular Sunday evening sermon on the subject of "The Ideal Wife." His material he obtained from the letters which he read.

Every man wrote that he did not wish his wife to be a college graduate nor a club woman or a reformer. Neither was it considered essential that she be pretty or talented. What every man wanted was an "old-fashioned girl." Also every aspirant for matrimonial bliss wanted his wife to be a good cook.

MOTHERS' DAY WORLD WIDE

To be Observed in All Parts of Globe Tomorrow.

A PHILADELPHIAN'S IDEA

Miss Anna Jarvis Originated the Observance of the Second Sunday In May as "Mothers' Day"—Will Be Generally Observed by Wearing a White Carnation.

Philadelphia, May 8.—To a Philadelphia woman, Miss Anna Jarvis, belongs the honor of originating the observance throughout the country of the second Sunday in May as "Mothers' day," a day set apart for the mothers of the nation. Reports coming here from all sections indicate that the day will be more generally observed tomorrow than it was last year or the year before, when the observance of the day began.

The governors of seven states have issued proclamations calling upon the citizens to observe the day, and mayors of cities all over the land have done the same thing.

In the last few days Miss Jarvis has received word from Rome, Turkey and Japan, telling her of the spontaneous adoption of the idea in those countries.

The outward sign of the observance is the wearing of a white carnation. In an address to the people of West Virginia asking the people of the state to remember the day Governor Glasscock requested them to wear the white carnation "because its whiteness stands for purity, its form for beauty, its fragrance for faithfulness—all a true mother's virtues." General Henry M. Nevius, commander in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, and Edgar Allen, Jr., commander in chief of the Sons of Veterans, have asked the members of the two organizations to wear the emblem of the day. In South Dakota "Mothers' day" has been set aside as a state holiday by Governor Vessey. Throughout the country services will be held in the churches in honor of the mothers.

In most of the Presbyterian churches of the country and in some of the churches of other denominations tomorrow will also be observed as "Labor Sunday." The second Sunday in May has been designated by the American Federation of Labor and by the department of church and labor of the Presbyterian church as "Labor Sunday," to be observed by the attendance in church of labor union members and by the discussion from the pulpit of some phase of the labor question.

MORSE SAYS HE'S BROKE

Convicted Banker Declares He Paid Millions to Creditors.

New York, May 8. — Charles W. Morse, the former banker, who is in prison under sentence for violation of the national banking laws, has not a share of stock, a bond or a piece of real estate left of his former estate of an estimated value of $30,000,000, according to evidence which he gave in supplementary proceedings.

Morse was at one time one of the largest holders of securities of the $60,000,000 Consolidated Steamship company and controlled three national banks. He testified in the supplementary proceedings that he had given all his property to creditors.

Mr. Morse said that no member of his family had any property in which he was interested, that he had no claims against anybody and that he never kept a set of books.

WANT TO TEACH US TO PLAY PROPERLY

Playground Experts Also Seek Quieter Fourth of July.

Pittsburg, May 10. — Instruction of the children and adults of the United States in the art of playing properly, without infringing on the rights of those not participating in the pastime, is one of the purposes of the Playground Association of America, which opened its third annual congress here today.

Large cities in every part of the Union are represented at the congress. Mayor Magee, of this city, in his invitation to city officials to attend the congress themselves and send representatives of the cities, said:

"The purpose of the congress and the association is to encourage the provision of adequate playground facilities for children and adults. Many of the matters for which the members of the congress will seek a solution are those which are rapidly becoming important issue in many of our great cities."

Among the speakers will be Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, of New York; Miss Jane Addams, of Chicago; Joseph Lee, president of the Massachusetts Civic league; Representatives James Francis Burke, Mayor Magee and Dr. Luther H. Gulick, of New York. Among the recommendations which will be made will be the substitution of dancing festivals for the present noisy celebration of the Fourth of July and for the almost equally noisy observance of New Year's eve.

HAINS CASE MAY END TODAY

If Acquitted on Grounds of Insanity He Will Be Sent to Asylum.

New York, May 10.—Before sundown tonight, it is believed, the case of Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., charged with the murder of William E. Annis, will be in the hands of the jury.

Counsel for the accused army captain who have been carefully building up the defense of insanity expressed confidence that an acquittal on that ground will be brought in by the jury.

Should the jury acquit him on the ground that he was mentally deficient at the time he shot William Annis on the float of the Bayside Yacht club it will be incumbent upon Justice Garretson to commit him to some state asylum for the criminal insane.

W. B. Reduso CORSETS

The Perfect Corset
for Large Women

It places over-developed women on the same basis as their slender sisters. It tapers off the bust, flattens the abdomen, and absolutely reduces the hips from 1 to 5 inches. Not a harness—not a cumbersome affair, no torturing straps, but the most scientific example of corsetry, boned in such a manner as to give the wearer absolute freedom of movement.

New W. B. Reduso No. 770. For large tall women. Made of white coutil. Hose supporters front and sides. Sizes 20 to 36. Price $3.00.

New W. B. Reduso No. 771. Is the same as No. 770, but is made of light weight white batiste. Hose supporters front and sides. Sizes 20 to 36. Price $3.00.

New W. B. Reduso No. 772. For large short women. The same as No. 770, except that the bust is somewhat lower all around. Made of white coutil, hose supporters front and sides. Sizes 20 to 36. Price $3.00.

New W. B. Reduso No. 773, is the same as No. 772, but made of light weight white batiste. Hose supporters front and sides. Sizes 20 to 36. Price $3.00.

Ask any dealer anywhere to show you the new W. B. "hip-subduing" models, which will produce the correct figure for prevailing modes, or any of our numerous styles which are made in such a variety as to guarantee perfect fit for every type of figure.

EDITORIAL.

THE TARIFF PROBLEM.

There is only one right solution of the American Tariff problem—the formation of a permanent tribunal of men equipped with expert knowledge of American industries yet bound to no special interest men of prominence and character such as will command the confidence of the people, yet dependent in no way for their livelihood or standing upon political leaders.

Henry R. Towne, President of the Merchants Association of New York, epitomized the situation by saying:

"It is evident already that the new Tarift Bill, whatever its final form, will not satisfy popular demand. This implies the danger of continued tariff agitation and the demand for another Tariff Bill next; year, whereas, if provision is made now for the intelligent and impartial study of tariff facts by a permanent board, it is probable that the people will be content to bear with the new bill until Congress is prepared on the secure foundation of the work of such a board."

H. E. Miles, the Racine manufacturer and chairman of the executive committee authorized at the Indianapolis Tariff Commission convention, said recently.

"I believe with Roosevelt and McKinley that we should look out for number one and should try and push our exports. A competent board with a knowledge of production and costs could satisfactorily study conditions at home and abroad that Congress might legislate wisely and that the executive might justly apply the maximum and minimum rates."

That a competent tariff board would mean real protection is the important point brought out by Charles M. Jarvis head of the American Hardware Corporation, of Connecticut who had in a recent interview:

"The salvation of the protective policy in this country lies through a Tariff Board, or some method of accurately, carefully systematically and honestly investigating our manufacturing industries in order to give adequate protection to those who need protection. Such an investigation would show clearly the difference in wages and other costs of production and the American people approve of a protection to home industries based upon accurate testimony."

ALARMING TO TEACHERS.

Thousands of school teachers throughout the state are greatly agitated over the probability of losing their positions, if the new school code should become a law by Governor Stuart's signing it.

*I*t is said by some prominent educators, who have carefully studied the code, that the requirements for examinations for teachers are so drastic, that many old and successful teachers will necessarily be relegated to the rear.

The Harrisburg School board has entered a strong protest against the signing of the bill. Superintendent F. E. Downs also says:

"As a school superintendent and in the interests of the thousands of teachers of the state, who do not happen to be normal school graduates, I appeal to your humaneness in the matter. Should this bill receive your approval it would without any doubt throw out of employment hundreds and probably thousands of our most faithful and efficient teachers. It will be absolutely impossible for many of our older teachers whose efficiency, professional spirit and usefulness are unquestioned, to meet the new requirements.

"Teachers who have grown up is the service under the present laws, having held professional certificates in many cases for a life time of teaching, ought not, at this stage of their useful service to the state, to be forced out, owing to their failure to measure up to arbitrary and exacting examination requirements which they have never anticipated. Thousands of our teachers have never had the advantages of a high school education and cannot at this time of their lives master the high school subjects required for a permanent certificate under the new code. These would all be forced out of the profession. This bill, in the respects mentioned, is unjust and cruel. It is positively wrong. I feel sure that the legislators who voted favorably on the bill did not realize what a gross injustice would result to the class of teachers I have mentioned."

It is certainly not a pleasant prospect, for teachers who have spent their lives in the work and who have no other dependence to find themselves legislated out of their jobs.

And yet that is the very thing that is happening to thousands every time a legislature meets. Schools and colleges of all kinds are constantly endeavoring to legislate all persons out of business in the interest of their graduates. It is always under the much abused disguise of raising the standards, but it is, in truth, a fraudulent conspiracy against thousands in many avocations, who have proven their skill and success by years of practice but who may nevertheless be unable to pass a drastic technical examination.

This paper is opposed to this class of legislation, but it seems to have the right of way and opposition is futile.

Good Business.

"The stationery printed at this office is giving the best satisfaction. Last week we printed one thousand statements for a man, and by their aid he collected a small fortune. Two months ago a man bought of us some note paper and envelopes to use when writing to his sweetheart and now he is married. Another young man forged a name on a check printed at this office, and is in the penitentiary. Another young man stole some paper to make cigarettes with—he is dead. A young lady bought some of our paper to curl her hair on, and now she has a beau. We only have a few packages of this kind in stock."—Ex.

New Company Opens Officere.

The men who are interested in the organization of the Pennsylvania Concrete and Manufacturing company have opened up officers in Eagle block, in the rooms formerly occupied by the late Thomas J. Sexton, where ex-recorder John C. Rowe will be in charge. Stock in the company is now being sold in local investors and is being taken quite liberally. A full organisation of the company will be made in the near future and as soon as the financial part of it is arranged work will be commenced on the building of the plant.

A Woman's Back

Has many aches and pains caused by weaknesses and falling, or other displacement, of the pelvic organs. Other symptoms of female weakness are frequent headache, dizziness, imaginary specks or dark spots floating before the eyes, gnawing sensation in stomach, dragging or bearing down in lower abdominal or pelvic region, disagreeable drains from pelvic organs, faint spells with general weakness.

If any considerable number of the above symptoms are present there is no remedy that will give quicker relief or a more permanent cure than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has a record of over forty years of cures. It is the most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nervine known to medical science. It is made of the glyceric extracts of native medicinal roots found in our forests and contains not a drop of alcohol or harmful, or habit-forming drugs. Its ingredients are all printed on the bottle-wrapper and attested under oath as correct.

Every ingredient entering into "Favorite Prescription" has the written endorsement of the most eminent medical writers of all the several schools of practice—more valuable than any amount of non-professional testimonials—though the latter are not lacking, having been contributed voluntarily by grateful patients in numbers to exceed the endorsements given to any other medicine extant for the cure of woman's ills.

You cannot afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for this well proven remedy OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, even though the dealer may make a little more profit thereby. Your interest in regaining health is paramount to any selfish interest of his and it is an insult to your intelligence for him to try to palm off upon you a substitute. You know what you want and it is his business to supply the article called for.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original "Little Liver Pills" first put up by old Dr. Pierce over forty years ago, much imitated but never equaled. Little sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

Life Crushed Out in Wood Elevator

Charles Richards, aged 56 years, was killed in the kindling wood factory at Lacquin Wednesday evening. He was engaged in sweeping about a moving elevator, when his hand caught in the chain and he was drawn into the machinery. One of the parts of the elevator caught and crushed him to death. The first intimation any one had of the accident was when the elevator came to a sudden stop. A man on the second floor seeing the elevator stop with a jar, made an investigation and found the body of Mr. Richards wedged in the machinery. He was dead when the men reached him.

Mr. Richards is survived by his widow and five children.

Rheumatism

Do you want to get rid of it? If so, take Dr. Miles Nervine modified as directed in pamphlet around bottle. In addition to the direct curative properties it has a soothing effect upon the nervous system by which the rheumatic pains are controlled, and rest and sleep assured. It has made many cures of this painful disease, some of them after years of suffering. If it will cure others why not you. If your case is complicated, write us for advice, it costs you nothing and may save you prolonged suffering.

"I was so crippled that I could scarcely walk. After having my shoes on for an hour or two I could manage to walk by suffering the pain. Then I began to have pains all through my system. My doctor told me I had an acute attack of inflammatory rheumatism. I read about Dr. Miles' Nervine, bought a bottle and I commenced to get better from the start and for the past six months have scarcely any pain, and am able to walk as well as ever."

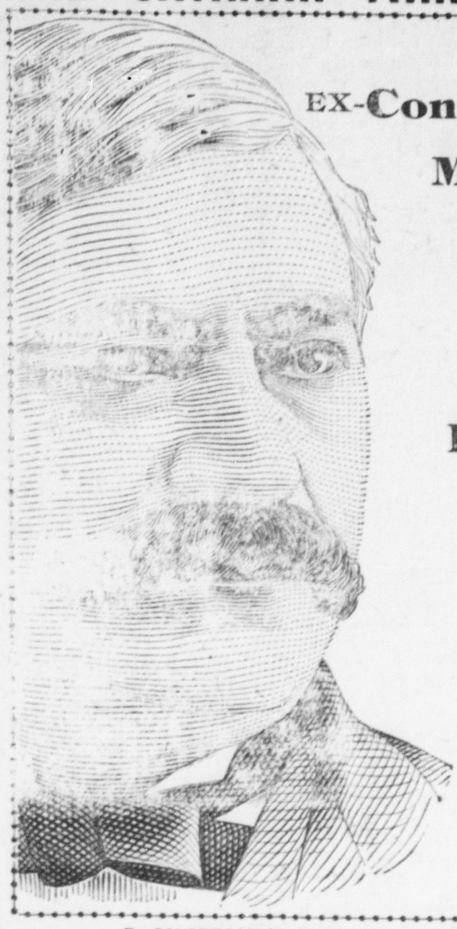
HAD CATARRH THIRTY YEARS.



EX-Congressman Meekison Gives Praise To Pe-ru-na For His Relief From Catarrh.

EX-CONGRESSMAN MEEKISON COMMENDS PE-RU-NA.

"I have used several bottles of Peruna and I feel greatly benefited thereby from my catarrh of the head. I feel encouraged to believe that if I use it a short time longer I will be fully able to eradicate the disease of thirty years' standing."---David Meekison.

OTHER REMARKABLE CASES.

Mr. Jacob L. Davis, Galena, Stone county, Mo., writes: "I have been in bad health for thirty-seven years, and after taking twelve bottles of your Peruna I am cured." Mr. C. N. Peterson, 132 South Main St., Council Bluffs, Iowa, writes: "I cannot tell you how much good Peruna has done me. Constant confinement in my store began to tell on my health, and I felt that I was gradually breaking down. I tried several remedies, but obtained no permanent relief until I took Peruna. I felt better immediately, and five bottles restored me to complete health."

A SINCERE RECOMMENDATION.

Mr. D. C. Prosser, Bravo, Allegan Co., Mich., writes: "Two years ago I was badly afflicted with catarrh of the stomach. I had had a run of typhoid fever, was very depleted. I could find nothing I could eat without causing distress and sour stomach. Finally I came to the conclusion that I had catarrh of the stomach and seeing Peruna advertised, began to take it. It helped me soon, and after taking three or four bottles I was entirely cured of stomach trouble, and can now eat anything."

When to Spray Blossoms

The owners of fruit trees who intend spraying their trees to prevent diseases and kill the codling moth larva are advised by Prof. Surface of the Division of Economic Zoology of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture not to spray the blossoms, but to wait until after the petals have dropped, or more than three-fourths are down. Injury will be caused to the blossoms if they are sprayed when open, but the spraying should not be delayed after the blossoms have fallen. To secure the best results the spray must be applied within six days after the blossoms fall, and a second spraying should be done ten days or two weeks after the first application to prove effectual. Reasons as follow:

1. The very young fruit is liable to be injured by the spray liquid falling upon it at this time. Spraying when in bloom is a very sure way of thinning the fruit crop, but it is very unscientific and unsatisfactory.

2. The delay of only a short time, or until just after the blossoms fall, gives the proper time for spraying for the codling moth and for plant diseases and does not result in the destruction of fruit or bees. The proper spraying material in the Bordeaux Mixture to which an arsenical poison such as Paris green or arsenate of lead is added. There are two spraying strengths for this liquid according to the hardiness of the tree or plant to be sprayed. Spray the apple, pear, quince and potato with the strong formula which calls for 3lbs. bluestone and 4 lbs. of quick lime in 50 gallons of water, with one or two lbs. of arsenate of lead added to this. If Paris green is used, instead of the arsenate of lead, 4lb. should be used to each 50 gallons.

The weak formula calls for one-half of the above quantities of bluestone, lime and arsenate of lead in 50 gallons of water. This is used on peach and plum trees on account of their tender bark, and on similar delicate plants. Peach and plum trees do not need to be sprayed immediately after blossoming, but these and the grapes should be sprayed for wormy fruit, making the application after the fruit reaches the size of buckshot.

Steps Taken to Organize Base Ball League

A preliminary meeting of representatives of the base ball teams at Bellefonte, Renovo, Jersey Shore and Lock Haven was held Friday evening at the cigar store and billiard parlor of Long & Achenbach, to consider the advisability of forming a base ball league, to be known as the Central Pennsylvania league. Those in attendance were H. Otto, Bellefonte; William Bailey, Edward Shelley and Charles Friel, Renovo; Thomas Watson and J. A. Halloran, Jersey Shore; F. D. O'Reilly, James McNerney, C. H. Achenback, Frank Gardner, G. W. A. MacDonald, R. R. Mader and others, Lock Haven.

After a general exchange of opinion it was agreed that a league composed of clubs in the four places named would be a success, provided the players were recruited largely from amateur ranks, in their home towns, and all were enthusiastic for the organization of the league.

A meeting will be held tonight in the Arbitration room at the Court House. All the base ball fans are urgently requested to be present.

This is the most dangerous time of the year to catch cold, and it is the hardest time to cure it. If you should take a cold, a few doses of kidney's Laxative Cough Syrup will act very promptly. Its laxative principle cures the cold by driving it from the system by a gentle but natural action of the bowels. Children especially like Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup, as it tastes so good nearly like maple sugar. It is sold by all dealers.

Blanchard

The B. Y. P. N. of the Liberty Baptist church celebrated Mother's Day on Sabbath evening each one present wearing a white blossom. The progam rendered was as follows: Meeting opened by Victor Ridge as leader, proclamation of Mother's Day, by Chrssee DeHass, solo. "Mother's Prayers" by Mabel Linn, home influence, Mrs. Laura Bechdel, singing "Home Sweet Home," Union, "Gen. Garfields Mother," by wm. Ridge, solo and chorus, "The Songs that Mother Sung," by Mrs. Ridge and Mrs. Laura Bechdel. Song, "Nobody Knows but Mother," by Annie Stricker and Mabel Kunes, "Memories of the Old Kitchen," by Lulu Gardner, "Mothers Vacant Chair" by Mrs. Ridge. After the program was ended a little time was given for reminiscences of mother and Home in which quite a number took part. After singing 'Tell Mother I'll be There," the meeting was closed by prayer by Rev. Wm. Gardner. It was indeed an hour spent and profitable to all present.

Mrs. Z. Sentz of Williamsport was a visitor in Blanchard on Saturday.

Mr. Irwin Scantlen of New Jersey has bought, and is now occupying the old home in Blanchard and is ready to do all kinds of ornamental plastering at short notice. Please give him a call.

Mrs. Campion of Williamsport visited her sister, Mrs. Laura Clark on Sunday.

The spirit of selfishness seems to be manifested by some of the Blanchard school girls toward some of the splendid Christian girls from other points who are attending the Normal here, and are letting their light shine in the churches as well as in their school life. They seem to forget to be kind to the stranger within their gates, also the work of a true lady and successful school teacher is courtesy shown in every rank of life from the lowest to the highest irrespected of wealth or beauty and that they would do well to learn the Golden Rule and practice it in their own lives.

Miss Maggie Stover of Blanchard was a Beech Creek visitor on Monday.

Mr. William and Clare Bowes left this week for the Bark Woods where they expect to remain for the summer.

Mr. Dick Quigley and family of Lock Haven were visitors at Mr. Z. A. Quigleys on Sunday.

Hear The Penn State Concert Orchestra

On Thursday night, Bellefonte will have the opportunity to hear one of Penn. States musical organizations, the concert orchestra, in an excellent program. This is the first year in the history of the college that a full orchestra has been maintained, and the success of the organization so far shows conclusively that it has come to stay. Under the leadership of Mr. R. H. Allport '09, the thirty members have been working together and producing the very best music in such a classical manner that they receive hearty praise from all who hear them.

The program selected is of an excellent quality and has three solo numbers which will prove very popular. Mr. H. P. Armstrong, whose fine voice many Bellefonters have had the pleasure of hearing, will sing a baritone solo with orchestra accompaniment. Another solo will be the mandolin, unaccompanies, by Mr. H. J. Meyer. The biggest feature, however, will be the playing of the Seventh Concerto (de Beriot) for violin, by Mr. L. F. Meissner '10. Mr. Meissner has been playing violin ever since he was able to walk, and has played some excellent and very difficult solos both in preparatory school and at college. The tone which he is able to bring from his violin is remarkable, and his execution is always in an easy and smooth style. The solo he has selected is one of the most popular, and most difficult among violinists today and will surely be worth hearing.

On Wednesday the orchestra will play in Philipsburg and Thursday at 8:15 they will play here in the Court House. The tickets are fifty cents and are on sale at Parrish's Drug Store.

Suggestive Questions on the Sunday School Lesson by Rev. Dr. Linscott for the International Newspaper Bible Study Club.

May 16, 1909.

Paul's First Missionary Journey.—Iconium and Lystra. Acts xiv:1-28.

Golden Text—All the gods of the nations are idols; but the Lord made the heavens. Psalm 96:5.

Verses 1-2—Point out on the map in your Bible where Iconium is situated.

Can two missionaries working together do more good than they could working separately?

Has the story of Jesus lost or gained, in its charm upon the multitude, since that day?

Was the unbelief of these Jews a matter of the intellect, through lack of evidence, or was it a matter of the heart; that is, a result of their rebellion against God?

Verse 3 7.—How do you account for the fact, that the same evidence, and spiritual demonstration, which made one part of the multitude turn to God with gladness of heart, made the other part angry in heart, and murderous in their actions? (This question is to be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Would you judge from this story, that all the good people were on the side of the apostles, and all the bad and dishonest people on the other side?

Will a wise and brave man, some times run away from such danger as threatened the apostles, or will he always stay and face it?

The apostles fled to Lystra and Derbe; where are these places situated?

Verse 8.—Is there ever any blame to be attached to those who are born with either physical or moral defects?

Are parents ever to be blamed for either physical or moral defects in their children?

Are pre-natal influences as powerful in shaping a child's destiny as postnatal?

In our present national condition should the state provide for and maintain all those whose who are born in an impotent condition?

Verses 9-10.—Is faith, like this man had, possible for all, or is it a gift of God, the same as the resultant grace and healing?

Was this a miracle, and whether or not, does God intend to run this world by law or by miracle?

Verses 11-13.—What was the idea that these people had of the Deity?

How would it be likely that Barnabas resembled Jupiter, and Paul Mercury to these people?

Is it a trait in human nature to believe in some popular superstition, rather than the plain truth of God?

Verses 14-15.—If a man of God is being regarded in some superstitious way, is it his duty to administer a rebuke?

Have the best of men got the same natural passions as the worst of men?

What comfort is there to us in the fact, that God made "the heavens and the earth?"

Verses 16-18,—Does God pay the same attention to the crops of the sinner, as he does to the crops of a saint?

Verses 19 20.—Was it the same people that stoned Paul, who before this wanted to do sacrifice to him?

Can there be any reliance placed upon the applause of the multitude?

Verses 21-28—What kind of a man is he who, laid out for dead through stoning, starts on his way the next day preaching his story of mercy and love?

Standing out in bold relief, all alone, and as a conspicuous example of open frank and honest dealing with the sick and afflicted, are Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, over-worked, debilitated, nervous, "run-down," pain-racked women and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous remedy for weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness, all catarrhal affections whether of the stomach, bowels, kidneys, bladder nasal passages, throat bronchia, or other mucous passages, also as an effective remedy for all diseases arising from thin, watery or impure blood, as scrofulous and skin affections.

Each bottle of the above medicines bears upon its wrapper a badge of honesty in the full list of ingredients composing it—printed in plain English. This frank and open publicity places these medicines in a class all by themselves, and is a strong guaranty of their merits. They cannot be called as patent nor secret medicines for they are neither—being of known composition.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, headache and biliousness. In vials, a convenient vest-pocket remedy.

L. C. BULLOCK, JR.
R.- 4- 22-tf. Overseer of Poor.

His Life Lengthened by Misspelled Name.

Because the state supreme court dropped the syllable "go" from the name of George Govogovitch, now under sentence of death for the murder of Michael Tintor, Judge Bittinger refused Attorney McClune the right to file his certificate from the supreme court authorizing the York court to grant a rule to show cause why a new trial should not be granted to the defendant.

The record of the supreme court made the name "Govogvitch." The error was made by the supreme court and will have to be corrected by that body before the York court will grant the new trial.

Govogovitch will, therefore, have his case delayed. Attorney McClune desires to present two important witnesses, who saw the shooting and will testify that it was done in self-defense.

MRS. BOYLE ALSO GUILTY

Woman Convicted as Accessory to Kidnapping.

HEAVY SENTENCES EXPECTED

It Is Not Believed Either of Them Will Be Given the Maximum Penalty, But They Will Probably Be Sent to the Penitentiary For a Long Term of Years.

Mercer, Pa., May 10.—Mrs. James H. Boyle, formerly Anna McDermott, of Chicago, was convicted on a charge of aiding, assisting and abetting in the abduction of Willie Whitla, of Sharon, Pa.

A motion for a new trial will be made by her counsel, Attorneys Miller and Stranahan, but it is said that Judge Williams will overrule the motion and pass sentence upon the woman and also her husband, who was convicted of kidnapping.

While it is not believed either of them will be given the maximum sentence, both, it is said, will probably be sent to the western Pennsylvania penitentiary at Pittsburg for a long term of years. Boyle is liable to life imprisonment and the maximum sentence of the woman is twenty-five years.

It is probable Boyle and the woman will be taken to Pittsburg this afternoon or tomorrow morning. Later an appeal to the supreme court of Pennsylvania will be made by the attorneys. In the higher court the question as to whether the Pennsylvania courts have jurisdiction in the case of the woman will, it is said, be strenuously fought.

Blames Women For Conviction.

After her conviction Mrs. Boyle said:

"Had I been a plain girl these same women would have pitied me. If the jury had acquitted me I believe these women would have tarred and feathered me. A sacrifice had to be made, and Jimmie and I are the victims.

"I admit that Boyle brought the boy to me at Cleveland; that I cared for him, was kind to him, entertained him. I never asked why he was there; never asked where Jimmie got him. He asked me, as his wife, to take care of the boy for a few days, and I did so. If that was a crime there are millions of wives waiting to be convicted.

"I tried to make this explanation, but was choked off. In the future they won't be able to choke me off.

"Seriously, I want to tell you there is going to be a double suicide. I will not spend much time in the penitentiary. I have made all arrangements and have the means now to depart quietly and quickly. Jimmy will do the same.

"Do you think I am going to the penitentiary for many years? No, sir. When my sentence would expire I would be an old woman. I would have no friends and no money. Who wants anything to do with an old woman? I would rather die young.

"This is my twenty-third birthday, and am I not in a very poor position to celebrate the event? I am innocent of crime, however, and maybe God in his goodness will yet allow me to spend many happy anniversaries."

NERVY GNAT STUNG TAFT

Bandage Covers Presidential Eye, But Does Not Halt His Activity.

Washington, May 8.—President Taft was compelled to abandon the idea of attending the unveiling of the Longfellow statue in this city owing to a badly inflamed eye over which he is wearing a light bandage. A gnat or some other small insect flew into Mr. Taft's eye while he was horseback riding. The president gave little attention to the matter at the time, and his eye became very much irritated.

Private Car Burns.

Fort Wayne, Ind., May 8.—The private car of First Vice President Joseph Wood and Third Vice President J. J. Turner, of the Pennsylvania railroad, caught fire while the occupants were asleep. Both had narrow escapes from death. Mr. Turner is reported to be painfully injured.

Crazy Man Demands Money.

Norristown, Pa., May 8.—"I want money and want it quick," said a wild-eyed man in the county treasurer's office here. Deputy Treasurer Anders told the man to be seated until he could get the cash. He then telephoned for the police, and the man, who was demented was locked up.

Wilkes-Barre Priest Dead.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 8.—Rt. Rev. Alexis G. Toth, archpriest and pastor of St. Mary's Orthodox Greek Catholic church of this city for many years past, died from a complication of ailments. He was sixty-six years of age.

Widow and Son Burned.

Chicago, May 10.—Mrs. Mollie Rath, a widow, and her son Arthur, fifteen years old, were burned to death in a fire which destroyed two frame buildings on the south side of the city. They were asleep when the fire broke out.

Made of Forest Roots

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases, if we would properly investigate them; and, in confirmation of this conviction, he points with pride to the almost marvelous cures effected by his which has proven itself to be the most efficient stomach tonic, liver invigorator and blood cleanser known to medical science. Dyspepsia, or indigestion and torpid liver yield to its curative action.

The reason why it cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., to all sending request for the same.

Not less marvelous, in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and distressing derangements is as is amply attested by thousands of unsolicited testimonials contributed by grateful patients who have been cured by it, often after many other advertised medicines, and physicians had failed.

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of native, medicinal roots. The processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs. A full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle-wrapper. Don't accept secret nostrums as substitutes for these medicines OF KNOWN COMPOSITION.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a brick dust sediment, or settling, stringy or milky appearance often indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back are also symptoms that tell you the kidneys and bladder are out of order and need attention.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills almost every wish in correcting rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. Corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest because of its remarkable health restoring properties. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

PLAN KIDNAPPING IN PRISON

Convict's Pardon to Be Price of Liberty For Governor's Son.

Oakland, Cal., May 6.—A plot to kidnap the eight-year-old son of Governor Gillett was unearthed at San Quentin prison when it was found that J. B. Clifton, a notorious criminal, who is serving time for attempting the life of Detective Hodgins, of Oakland, had completed arrangements with a confederate on the outside to steal the boy and hold him for ransom. The price of the lad's return to his father was to have been Clifton's pardon.

Lost His Job; Ended Life.

VISION OF DEATH TRUE

Father's Body Brought Home Short Time After Boy's Premonition.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 6—A strange premonition of the three-year-old son of Bruce Long, a Delaware & Hudson railroad brakeman, that his father would be killed came true. The accident occurred Monday night and the grief-stricken mother told the story Wednesday.

About 8 o'clock Monday night she heard the child tossing and moaning on its bed. She asked why he was not asleep and was startled with the answer: "Papa is dead; he is dead under the cars and his legs are cut off."

Two hours later the body of the father was brought home.

NEW RECORD FOR ROOSEVELT

Biggest Lion Killer In British East African Protectorate.

Nairobi, British East Africa, May 6.—Theodore Roosevelt went lion hunting again Tuesday, and before the chase was over two more big lions had fallen before his gun. These animals were encountered and killed in the tall grass.

Mr. Roosevelt now holds the record for lion killing in the protectorate. Since Saturday of last week a total of five lions and one lioness have been bagged by him.

HAILSTONES CAUSE FAILURE

Cincinnati Florist Gives Unique Reason For Making Assignment.

Cincinnati, May 6.—William K. Partidge, one of the best known florists in Cincinnati, has filed a deed of assignment. He gives his assets at $40,000, liabilities at $30,000, and hailstones as the cause of his failure.

Two weeks ago a hailstorm did $8000 damage to plants in his greenhouses and beds, and two years ago a similar storm did greater damage.

CONSTITUTION FOR PERSIA

Shah Issues a Proclamation Calling For One.

Teheran, Persia, May 6.—A proclamation signed by the shah was issued announcing that as a constitutional regime is alone capable of restoring order and promoting the welfare of the country he accords a constitution to the people.

If your Stomach, Heart or Kidneys are weak, try at least, a few doses only of Dr. Shoop's Restorative. In five or ten days only, the result will surprise you. A few cents will cover the cost. And here is why help comes so quickly. Dr. Shoop doesn't drug the Stomach, nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to the weak and failing nerves. Each organ has its own controlling nerve. When these nerves fail. This plain, yet vital truth, nearly tells why Dr. Shoop's Restorative is so universally successful. Its success is leading druggists everywhere to give it universal preference. A test will surely tell. Sold by J. Zeller & Son

RENTS COLLECTED

SAYS SHE WILL KILL HERSELF

Mrs. Boyle Will Commit Suicide Before Going to Jail.

VERDICT EXPECTED TODAY

Whitla Kidnappers Say They Have Not Been Permitted to Tell the Whole Story of the Abduction and Try to Throw Blame on Another Person.

Mercer, Pa., May 8.—Relying entirely upon their contention that the Pennsylvania courts have no jurisdiction in her case, counsel for Mrs. James Boiye, on trial charged with aiding and abetting the kidnapping of "Billy" Whitla, refused to offer any evidence in her behalf. Arguments began today and the defense hopes to convince the jury of the correctness of its contention. The claim of the prosecution that Mrs. Boyle participated while in this state in the formation of the conspiracy to kidnap the boy, which was afterwards carried out, will be combatted by the defense, which will endeavor to have her released in Pennsylvania and turned over to the authorities at Cleveland.

The state's testimony was mainly the same as that given in the trial of James Boyle, but there were some additional witnesses summoned for the purpose of connecting Mrs. Boyle with the abduction.

Throughout the proceedings there was an apparent desire on the part of Boyle and his wife to bring out the name of another party said to have been connected with the case. During the trial Boyle endeavored to tell more than he had been asked. "I want to tell the whole truth about this case now," said he. "I want the whole thing cleared up. I was not to blame. The whole blame was on some one else."

In her cell in jail Mrs. Boyle said: "Both Jimmie and myself have tried to tell the whole story in connection with this case. We have not been permitted to do so. It is not justice. Everything should be heard and threshed out. As for myself, I will commit suicide before I go to the penitentiary."

Great interest is being manifested in the community as to whether Boyle or his wife will get a chance to tell what apparently is on their minds before the end of the trial. As the testimony has been closed on both sides, the only chance Boyle would have would be when called upon for any reason he might have why sentence should not be pronounced. If Mrs. Boyle is convicted she would have the same chance. If she is acquitted she probably would not care to bring any one else into the case.

HAINS CASE NEAR END

Both Sides Will Sum Up Monday and May Go to Jury Tuesday.

Flushing, N. Y., May 8.—After a breathing spell of two days, today and tomorrow, the Hains trial will reach the beginning of the end. On Monday both sides will sum up, and unless some unforeseen delay arises Justice Garretson will charge the jury on Tuesday morning. Thereafter the fate of Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., U. S. A., on trial for the murder of William E. Annis at the Bayside Yacht club last August, will be in the hands of twelve men.

Three hours will be allowed each side for the final appeal to the jury. John F. McIntyre, chief counsel for the defense, announces that he will utilize every minute of the time for his speech, but it is expected that District Attorney DeWitt will not take so long.

As the trial nears its end both the prosecution and defense profess confidence as to the outcome. District Attorney DeWitt said that he could not see "any other result but a verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment." Mr. McIntyre, Eugene Young and Daniel O'Reilly, counsel for the defense, on the other hand, say that they feel sure of their client's acquittal.

CHASE ROBBERS ON ENGINE

Caught as They Were About to Torture a Woman.

Altoona, Pa., May 10.—Four masked men went to the home of Mrs. Nancy Baker, aged eighty years, who lives alone in a mansion three miles north of Bellwood, and ransacked the house. It was supposed she had considerable money concealed about the premises. A farmer saw the men at work, and notified the Bellwood police, who organized a posse and were hurried to the scene on a special engine.

The robbers were just about to torture Mrs. Baker, to compel her to tell where the money was hidden. They heard the engine stop near the house and fled.

Sparrow a Suicide.

Hartford, Conn., May 10.—A sparrow committed involuntary suicide by hanging itself from a tree in City Hall square in the heart of Hartford's business section. While plucking at a string which protruded some distance up the side of a large elm, it became entangled and died from strangulation.

TRY TO FREE MORSE ON BAIL

Ready to Put Up $1,000,000 Bond to Release Convicted Banker.

New York, May 10. — A petition signed by a score or more of men prominent in the banking and commercial world was presented to the United States circuit court of appeals today, asking that Charles W. Morse, the convicted banker, now in the Tombs, be admitted to bail pending a decision on his appeal.

The petition states the signers believe Morse innocent of an attempt to defraud the Bank of North America and when the case is understood he will be acquitted. It is said they are ready to offer $1,000,000 bail if necessary.

USED EXPLOSIVE FOR TARGET

Explosion Fatally Injures Man and Shakes Houses Over Mile Away.

Washington, Pa., May 10. — Steve Page is dying in a hospital here from injuries received when a magazine containing forty quarts of nitrogiycerine and 150 pounds of dynamite blew up. Page and Tony Merrette, both Italians, not knowing what was in it, pinned a target on the magazine and began shooting at it with their revolvers. Merrette was not hurt. Houses a mile and a half away were shaken by the explosion.

PLANS BALLOON TRIP ACROSS THE OCEAN

Would Accomplish Feat Two Miles Above the Earth.

Boston, May 10.—A balloon trip over the Atlantic from Boston to Europe is planned by Professor Henry H. Clayton, who recently resigned as meteorologist at the Blue Hill observatory after sixteen years of study of the direction and velocity of wind currents. Professor Clayton believes he can accomplish the feat of crossing the Atlantic by taking advantage of an upper air, or planetary current, which, his experiments have shown, flows constantly eastward at the height of two miles and more above the earth. He declares he can make the distance of 3000 miles easily in three or four days.

As a sort of preliminary test of the possibilities of the trip, Professor Clayton is now making plans for an air voyage from San Francisco to the Atlantic coast.

TILL'S GARDEN AT 112

Oldest Woman in Delaware Peninsula Lives Alone.

Delmar, Del., May 10.—The oldest woman in the Delaware-Maryland-Virginia peninsula lives here in a house by herself. She is Mrs. Hester Cordroy, aged 112 years, having been born Feb. 2, 1797 on a farm nine miles east of Delmar. The woman actually cultivates two large gardens attached to her home, and sells the products. She uses a hoe in helping along the growth of corn, potatoes, onions, etc.

INSURES BALL PLAYER

Club Owner Takes Out $50,000 Policy on Roger Bresnahan.

St. Louis, Mo., May 10. — Stanley Robison, owner of the St. Louis National base ball club, has taken out a $50,000 life insurance policy on his manager and leading catcher, Roger Bresnahan. The policy runs for five years and the annual premium is $1300.

Bresnahan cost Robison four good players valued at $50,000 when he was bought from the New York National team. He is under a three-year contract to play for $25,000. This makes Robison's investment $75,000 in Bresnahan.

He Voted For Eighteen Presidents.

Clarksburg, W. Va., May 10—George T. Faris, aged ninety-three years, is dead on land at Bridgeport, patented in 1785 by his grandfather, who was afterward killed by Indians on the banks of the Ohio river. George T. Faris voted for eighteen presidents.

SAVES FAMILY BURIED IN RUINS

Girl With Axe Cuts Relatives Out of Storm-Wrecked Home.

RESCUES ALL EXCEPT MOTHER

Father Was Caught by Heavy Timbers and Child Was Forced to Cut Off His Arm to Free Him—Carnegie Hero Medal to Be Asked For Her.

Bowden, Ga., May 10.—For her bravery in hewing the members of her family out of the ruins of their storm-wrecked home, a Carnegie hero medal is to be asked for fifteen-year-old Mamie Price, who lives near here.

A storm struck the Price home, wrecked it and buried all the family in the debris except the girl. She procured an axe, and, guided by the cries of the victims and a lantern, began to cut them out. Mrs. Price died as the girl cut the last timbers from about her, but she rescued her baby brother and a younger sister unhurt.

Her father had been caught by the heavy timbers; but his most serious hurt was the crushing of his left arm. The girl cut away the timbers from the body of her father, but the mangled arm was still held. Price realized that the arm was lost and that it was only held by shreds of skin and flesh, so he told the girl to sever the strings with the axe.

The child objected, but when the father insisted she brought down the axe and Price was free. Under her father's directions the child made a tourniquet to stop the loss of blood from the severed arm and then went through the darkness for assistance. Price will recover.

A handsome memorial will be given the girl by citizens of Bowden, and her name will be presented to the Carnegie commission.

BABY'S BODY IN COTTON BALE

Death of Texas Child Explained by Discovery In England.

Galveston, Tex., May 10.—The disappearance of Alfred Hartman, the two-year-old son of George and Angelina Hartman, of Gillespie county, five months ago, has been solved by the finding of the dead body of the infant in a bale of cotton opened at a gin in Liverpool, England.

It was early in December that Hartman, who is a prosperous farmer, took a load of cotton to a gin a few miles from his home and had it ginned. His son accompanied him on the trip to Fredericksburg, and in some manner became separated from his father.

Search for the missing boy proved without success, and it was finally believed that the baby had fallen into a creek.

The finding of a body answering the description accounts for the child having crept into the press while open, and, falling asleep, was ginned in the bale of cotton.

The cotton was sold to a Texas concern, placed in a warehouse for several weeks and was finally exported to Liverpool.

LOST GIRL SLEPT IN WOODS

Guarded by Faithful Shepherd Dog When Found by Searchers.

Elkton, Md., May 10.—The entire village of Edgewood spent several hours searching for Clara, a three-year-old daughter of C. N. McComas, who had disappeared from her home in the afternoon.

With the family shepherd dog, Clara strayed into a woods a mile from her parents' home and, becoming weary, fell on a clump of bushes and went to sleep. The faithful shepherd dog was guarding her when members of the searching party discovered the lost girl and carried her home.

FEWER IDLE CARS

Reports From United States and Canada Show 14,335 Less.

New York, May 10.—The fortnightly bulletin of the American Railway association gives the number of surplus cars on the railroad lines of the United States and Canada on April 25 as 282,328, a decrease of 14,335, as compared with the number on April 14. This is the first important change in the country's car surplus since the beginning of February.

Lutherans Lay College Cornerstone.

15,000 Visitors on Battleship.

New Orleans, May 10.—It was demonstrated Sunday that the big battleship Mississippi can accommodate 5000 visitors at once and not be overcrowded. More than 15,000 persons visited the ship.

Great Wheat Crop in the west.

Spokane, Wash. May 9.—Reports from the grain belts in eastern Washington and Oregon, northern and central Idaho and western Montana, compiled by the Spokane chamber of commerce, show that the wheat yield in the Inland Empire will be near the 80,000,000 bushel mark this season, as against 65,000,000 bushels in 1907, the banner year in the history of the district. Conditions are also favorable for bumper crops of oats and other cereals, as frequent light rains this spring have kept the ground moist and free from cracking.

The average of winter wheat is as large as it has ever been, while there will be an increase of from 12 to 15 per cent in spring sown grain. What this means to the farmers of this part of the North west will be better understood when it is known that 50-cent wheat is profitable, 65-cent grain yields big returns, while from 75-cent to $1 wheat becomes the basis of fortunes.

More than 2,100,000 acres of land in 13 counties in eastern Washington, which yielded 40,675,000 bushels of wheat in 1907, is under cultivation this season and local bankers and millers, returning from trips into the Bend, the Palouse and the Walla Walla belts, say the outlook is better than ever, adding that a good rain in May or early in June will insure the banner crop in the history of the district. They report that the ground is well pulverized, thus conserving the moisture, and that the growing wheat is in excellent condition.

Farmers throughout the country believe that prices this year will be higher than have yet prevailed at the beginning of the shipping season, as there is little wheat on hand. The available supply is selling at from $1.15 to $1.18 a bushel.

Messina of Today and Yesterday

The great advantage of Lyman H. Howe's reproduction of Messina is that it shows the city not only as it exists since the earthquake, but as it was before it. The treasured wealth of art and architecture of Messina and the romantic beauty of its site must be seen at Garmans opera house on Wednesday May 19th before the mind can measure the extent of the holocaust. The scenes afford opportunity for comparison which would be impossible otherwise. Yesterday's land of enchantment is shown almost simultaneous with today's desert of desolation. The true significance of the greatest disaster since the Christian Era is conveyed in a way compared to which all description is futile. The same scenes to be shown here by Mr. Howe were recently presented by him in the great New York Hippodrone and not only held the immense audience spell-bound, but won unreserved praise from the most conservative newspapers in the metropolis.

This Culvert too Small.

Much complaint has been heard against the recent flood against the stone culvert which was placed under the main public from Beech Creek to Blanchard near Hunter's about three years ago by the supervisors of Liberty township. At that time they were warned that they were not giving the culvert enough capacity to vent the water in time of floods, but they built it according to their own ideas. Consequently it is too small, and the high water of the run flowing through the Mitchell Bitner property is dammed back and floods the lands on the west side and runs over the road and washes it out as well as the stone walk. A ten-foot span should be placed at that point, which would take care of all of the water coming from the run as well as from the overflowing of its banks by the Beech creek at the old Nestlerode boom and mill.

What Next?

Recently notice was made in these columns that the Pittsburg Dispatch had added a fine Literary Magazine to its Sunday edition, and that the price would not be increased but would remain at five cents.

Now the Dispatch announces the publication of Roy Norton's latest novel, "The Nation's Pawn." and that the first instalment will be published in the Literary Magazine section May 16th. Those who read the "Vanishing Fleets" by the same author are sure to read Mr. Norton's new novel which is considered better. The story is clean, wholesome and fit for every member of the family to read. It is certain to create a sensation.

After all the good things The Dispatch has been adding lately is it any wonder people say, "What Next?"

BRIEF MENTION

Short Items of Local Interest Gathered By The Way Side

—Sunday was Mother's Day. Did you wear a white carnation?

—Lyman H. Howe's moving picture show May 19th at Garman's opera house.

—Lively times are looked for at Donora when all the steel trust furnaces resume operations.

—Maurice Kelly opened his broker's office in the former room on the third floor of the Temple court on Thursday morning.

—Mrs. Bogle entertained the Bellefonte chapter of the D. A. R., Thursday at her home, The Forge House. It was the annual election of officers.

—A little son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hazel fell into the dam at the Swing factory on Wednesday and was almost drowned before he was rescued.

—Miss Nellie Solt of South Spring street is confined to her home threatened wih an attack of appendicits. Nell is one of the obliging telephone girls in the Commercial Exchange.

—The Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, of Pittsburg, has received orders for twenty-four electric locomotives for use in the New York terminal of the Pennsylvania railroad.

—Jacob S. Kinsel on Monday bought out the blacksmith's shop of George Doll and immediately took charge of same. He has rented one of Mingle's houses on East Bishop street and will move his family there from State College.

—John M. Bullock has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late C. Frank Montgomery and he and W. Hassell Montgomery will continue to conduct the store in Crider's Exchange under the firm name of Montgomery & Co.

—Postmaster John G. McCamont, of Tyrone, entertained a large party of friends at his annual apple-blossom party at the Nittany Country Club home at Hecla Park over Sunday. There was about twenty Tyrone people present and all had a good time.

—During the past week the bath room in the Methodist parsonage has been entirely overhauled and repaired and the electric light wiring leading to the third story, which was found defective in a number of places, was also replaced with a new system.

—After being laid up for repairs over a month Hugh L. Crider's Oldsmobile was put in good working order last Friday and that gentleman is again enjoying the use of it. Dr. Kilpatrick has had his Franklin runabout repainted a bright red and it now looks as spic and span as a new machine.

—George A. Bayard, who is now clerking at the LeRoy hotel, in Altoona, every now and then favors residents of the Mountain city with a sample of his fine singing, and last Sunday sang the solo, "Face to Face," in the First Presbyterian church on the occasion of the Odd Fellows services. In commenting on the fact the Times said: "Mr. Geo. Bayard, of Altoona, sang the beautiful tenor solo, "Face to Face." Mr. Bayard is the brother of Roger T. Bayard, editor of the Tyrone Daily Herald and possesses a beautiful voice and his rendition of the sacred sole was faultless and was listened to with rapt attention."

—One of the prettiest homes in Bellefonte is the one now owned and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Mart B. Garman, on east Curtin street. The house he has repaired to look like new and his spacious stable on the rear looks nice enough for a residence. But his lawn is one of the biggest beauty spots. The extra lot on the east and in the rear of the house was last year leveled up and sodded and in the fall over one thousand spring flowering bulbs were planted in beds laid out by an experienced landscape gardener and now that they are growing nicely and some of them already out in bloom it presents a very pretty sight.

—Patrons of Milton Kern's barber shop hardly know the place now. Last week the old stands and mirrors were removed and an entire new front of modern design put in its place. In addition Mr. Kern put in a new reading table and had his lounging chairs all cleaned and revarnished so that the place now presents a very citified appearance. And one commendable thing about the new front is that it was made right here in Bellefonte by T. R. Hamilton, at his new machine shop in the rear of his residence on Howard street. The front is in three sections, each containing a large beveled edge French plate glass mirror. It is of oak, highly polished, stained and varnished, and is a job that could not be surpassed by any factory in the country.

—A rose tree festival will be held at St. John's hall May 18th for the benefit of the parochial school.

—The ladies of the Lutheran church will hold a necktie social at the home of Lew Gettig on Friday night.

SALESMEN—Best commission offer on earth. New-all retailers-samples, coat pocket. Reliable, Iowa City, Iowa.

—Mr. W. L. Daggett entertained his birthday surprise party guests at the country club Tuesday and all had a very enjoyable time.

—Don't forget the masquerade skate at the armory on Saturday night, the Coleville band will furnish the music. Ladies 25cts. and men 35cts.

—The moon changing on Tuesday night evidently accounts for the change in the weather and we certainly are glad of it and trust to see the beautiful spring days stay with us a while.

LOST—On the Bald Eagle train Saturday morning between Port Matilda and Bellefonte, a short black overcoat. Please send or notify Paul Blakeslee, Centre Hall Pa., liberal reward will be given.

—Mr. Jame A. Pratt the student in charge of the Snow Shoe and Mochannon Presbyterian churches will conduct the first services in the Snow Shoe church Sunday morning May 16th at 11 o'clock.

—A traveling orchestra of seven pieces discoursed sweet music on the streets of our town Wednesday. Their repertoir of music contains some of the best selections, while they have also all the late popular airs.

—The School Board should get busy again and let the Contract for tearing down the old building and sorting the material then the bidders on the new building can see what they can use, and make allowances for it.

—Lay your plans to attend the interesting event at the Athletic field on Saturday at 1.45 p. m. Interesting speeches will be delivered and a great base ball contest will follow between the Academy and Indiana Normal nines. Remember the hour 1.45 p. m. sharp.

—Something new and good the Chas. J Higgs Loyal Temperance Legion of Bellefonte will hold a social and entertainment in W. C. T. U. rooms of Petrikin Hall Friday evening May14, at eight o'clock. No admission will be charged, all are invited to come and bring their friends.

—The Knights of the Maccabees at their meeting Wednesday night elected another member. The statement was made that there had been paid out in relief by the Sick and Accident department of the association nearly three hundred dollars this winter, which is certainly a great help to those in the need of sickness or accident.

—A suggestion to the Post Office Department or the post master is that the hours of collection of the mails from the boxes be again put on the mail boxes. In many cases it looks as though there might have been some times mentioned on the boxes but that was in the distant past and on others the time has been changed some. We trust this suggestion will be looked into.

—Rev. C. T. Aiken last Friday tendered his resignation as president of the Susquehanna University at Selinsgrove to take effect at the close of the present school year. For several years he was pastor of the Lutheran church at Pine Grove Mills, a pastorate he resigned about two years ago to accept the presidency of the Susquehanna University. In his brief career there, however, he has found the work so arduous that he has at last hearkened to the advice of his friends, who realized that the work was sapping the life out of him, and handed in his resignation. It is not yet known just what Rev. Aiken's intentions for the future are, but it would not be surprising if he moved to State College, where he has a number of business interests, and make that place his home for a time at least.

Married at Williamsport.

Morton C. DeHass, of Liberty township, and Miss Crissie W., daughter of Mrs. Harry Linn, of Beech Creek township, went to Williamsport Wednesday of last week and at 2.30 o'clock in the afternoon were united in marriage at the parsonage of the Grace M. E. church by the pastor, Rev. J. K Lloyd. The groom is a young man of good character. He spent some time at the Beech Creek station of the B. E. V. rail oad where he learned telegraphy and of late has been an operator on the Buffalo & Susquehanna railroad.

The bride is an estimable young woman, who was first assistant in the local postoffice for several years and filled the position with entire satisfaction to the public and with great credit to herself. She resigned a few weeks prior to her wedding. Mr. DeHass is to be congratulated upon securing this young lady for his wife. The happy young couple arrived home Thursday evening and are at the Linn home in Maidsville and receiving the hearty congratulations of their many friends both being well known and popular young people.

P. R. R. Pays Large Sums In Pensions.

More than 2,000 employes of the Pennsylvania Railroad were receiving pensions from the Company on Janv. 1, 1909, and the payments authorized to be make to them during the year of 1908 amounted to $544, 245.08. Since the Pension Department was established in 1900, the sum of $3,445, 793.77 has been paid to retired employes. These striking figures are brought out in the annual report of the Pension Department of the Company, which has just been issued.

When its pension system was inaugurated by the Pennsylvania Railroad for the purpose of providing for its employes in their old age, the sum of $300,000.00 was appropiated for the first year's payments. This sum was continued for two years, and in 1902 increased to $390,000.00 per annum. In 1907 it was raised to $600,000.00. This does not include the operating expenses of the department, which are also paid by the Company, and which in 1908 amounted to $5,369.47.

All employes, no matter of what rank receive pension allowances on relatively equal terms. For every year of service rendered the Company, a retired employe is paid one per cent. of his average salary for the ten years immediately preceding his retirement. In other words, a man who has worked for the Company fifty years, and who receive an average annual salary of $1,000.00 the last ten years of active service, receives a pension of $500.00 a year.

A total of 367 employes were retired on pensions in 1908, while 211 men who were already on the pension list died during the year. The number of retired employes on December 31st, 1908, was 2,176, or 156 more than at the close of 1907. The average of those receiving pensions is 73 years and 3 months, while the oldest employe on the list attained the age of 92 years in 1908.

West Susquehanna Classis.

The West Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed church in the U. S. will meet in its 53rd annual session in the St. John's Reformed church, this place, Wednesday evening May 19th and continue in session until Sunday evening May 23rd. There will be about 45 ministerial and lay delegates attending the Classis. The territory represents 63 congregations with a membership of over 6000.

The day sessions will be devoted to the transaction of business; the evenings will be given to the discussion of topics relating to the general interests of the church. Wednesday evening the retiring president of classis, the Rev. Samuel H. Stein of Lock Haven will preach the sermon and open the sessions.

Thursday evening the Rev. W. C. Rittenhouse of Williamsport, will discuss "The Deaconess Work." and the Rev. Frank Wetzel of Rebersburg, "Ministerial Relief."

Friday evening will be given to "The Laymens Missionary Movement" and the speaker will be William H. Keller, Esq., of Lancaster, Pa.

Saturday evening the Rev. W. F. Moore, Supt. of "Bethany Orphan's Home" Womelsdorf. Pa., will tell of their work. The Rev. R. Leighton Gerhart, D. D. of Lewisburg, Pa. will deliver the "John Calvin Memorial" address.

Sunday morning Classical Communion will be observed and in the evening the Rev. Dr. J. P. Moore of Tokio, Japan, will speak on the theme, "The World for Christ." All the sessions will be open to the public.

Daniel Gentzel.

On Wednesday May 5th morning at four a. m. Daniel Gentzel, a well known and highly respected resident of Spring Mills, died at his home in that place as the result of a stroke of paralysis which he suffered on Saturday morning, leaving him in a semi-conscious condition until death intervened at the above mentioned time. Deceased was born and lived his entire life time in Centre county. By occupation he was a farmer during the most active years of his life, wherein he was justly successful. Some years ago he etired and moved to Spring Mills, where he had lived ever since, practicing the profession of a vetrinary surgeon.

He was united in marriage to Miss Harriet Hunter, who survives his death with the following children: Mano, Benjamin' Edgar, Katherine and Cleveland. Two children preceded him to the grave. One sister and three brothers also survive, namely: Mrs. Amelia Neese, of Spring Mills; Henry, Perry and Benjamin.

Funeral services were held on Saturday morning from his late home and interment was made in Beckman's cemetery.

NEW ATHLETIC FIELD.

It Will be Dedicated Saturday With Appropriate Ceremonies.

Saturday afternoon of this week will be observed with special athletic ceremonies by the Academy. Just prior to the Indiana Normal game, which will be the best of the season, the new athletic field will be dedicated to Rev. James Potter Hughes and be called as long as it is under the Academy control Hughes Field. Mr. Hughes is a splendid illustration of what athletic exercises will do for a body, for he is as rugged today as the average man of sixty. He has always been a lover of and participator in, athletic sports and the naming of the field after him is a fitting and worthy honor, Col. Hugh S. Taylor will make the speech of dedication. Mr. William Crooks, president of the Senior class will turn the field over to the association. Mr. Gilbert Meyer, the president, of the athletic association will receive it and then Rev. J. P. Hughes will make a short speech. The game will then begin.

The many friends of the Academy and all lovers of good ball should be present at this dedicatory event and thereby show their approval and their interest. The exercises will begin at 1.45 and the ball game at 2.00 sharp. The price of admission is 25 cents.

The suggestion to call the field the Hughes Field originated with the students.

Cole Brother's Advance Car Here

The first advance car of the great Cole Brothers' Show arrived here this morning and its 30 odd bill-posters, lithographers and bannermen got busy at once, heralding the coming of the show, which will be here Wednesday May 26.

This car bills in surrounding country within a radius of 25 miles from the place of exhibition, and the town in which the show will exhibit. The paper used by his show is elegant and in no way partakes of the over-exaggerated pictorical paper as often used by circuses. Every day this car uses 10 barrels of flour for paste and over 5,000 sheets of pictoral pasters to say nothing of the smaller stuff, such as programs, lithographs and heralds. There are 70 men in the advance of this show and from today until the show has exhibited here, there will not be a day but that the show will have a representative in the town. The second advance car will be here and work from day to day and in the meantime, a brigade of the men will be sent in to follow up the work of the car here today. The Cole Brothers' Shows spend millions of dollars yearly in advertising and believe that honest advertising is the keystone to success. Their motto has always been to advertise modestly what they have and never to advertise anything they do not have.

Pathfinder Car dere on Sunday.

Bellefonte is on the route of an auto. endurance contest and this one will be a big one. It is the run of the Quaker City Motor club which starts from Philadelphia June 14 to go to Pittsburg and return. The ontward run will come by way of Bellefonte and will take three days. The return trip will be made via Lewistown, in two days.

The first day's run will be from Philadelphia to Williamsport, via Norristown, Perkiomen, Reading, Port Clinton, Pottsville, Buckborn, Shamokin, Sunburg, Milton, Muncy and Montoursville, approximating 189 miles

The second day's run will be from Williamsport to Johnstown, via Jersey Shore, Lock Haven, Milesburg Bellefonte Tyrone, Altoona and Cresson, approximately 145 miles,

The third days' run will be from Johnstown to Pittsburg via. Blairsville Wilkinsburg, approximately 73 miles

The fourth day's run will be from Pittsburg to Lewistown, via Greensburg, Cressen, Hollidaysburg, and Huntingdon, approximately 165 miles.

The fifth day's run will conclude at the Hotel Walton, Philadelphia and will be made via. Mt. Pleasant, Duncannon, Harrisburg, Marietta, Lancaster, Coatesville Bryn Mawr and Fairmount park, approximately 165 miles.

The pathfinding car, an American traveler arrived in Bellefonte Sunday about 1:30 from Williamsport carrying Dr. J. R. Overpeck, Lewis Vogel, George Parker and William Jackson.

The "pathfinder" car was bedecked with fluttering flags, as it shot into Bellefonte at a rate of speed estimated at 50 to 70 miles an hour.

Died in the Roadway.

Late last Thursday afternoon Ned Turner, evidently a show man, died in the road in front of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Francis, at West Bingham, Potter county. The barking of the dog of Mr. Francis attracted his attention to the prostrate form of the man who was in a ditch. He gasped two or three times after Mr. Frances reached his side. He had nothing on his person from which the location of his home or whereabouts of relatives would be learned. He was about 70 years of age. Apoplexy evidently caused death.

DR. WESTON ARRIVES.

New Y M. C. A Secretary Receives Cordial Reception.

Dr. R. L. Weston, the new secretary for the Y. M. C. A., arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday. His family will remain for a time in their home at Parkersburg, W. Va. Tuesday night a special meeting of the Directors of the Y. M. C. A. was held inorder to extend to Mr. Weston a cordial welcome and talk over plans for immediately infusing into the association the spirit and life that must characterize it to make it a power for good in the community.

The building will be given a thorough overhauling at once in the cleaning line, the bowling alleys will be prepared for use, the boys and young men's clubs will be reorganized for christian and physical exercises and the finances will be given due attention.

Dr. Weston has been associated with some of the leading associations in the country such as in Dallas, Texas, Minneapolis, and Parkersburg. The papers in these cities and letters from prominent citizens of the cities where he has labored speak of Dr Weston's successful work and his ability for service both in the position of General Secretary and Physical Director in most complimentary and encouraging terms. He will officiate in the above double capacity for the Bellefonte association. He promises to prove the man we need for the success of the young men and boys work in the community. Let us all give him a hearty welcome and the very best practical encouragement of which we are capable from the very first and thus give him the fair chance to "make good" which his successful record elsewhere certainly warrants and demands.

The following resolution of appreciation was passed by the directors for the encouragement of Charles Barnes who helped the Y. M. C. A. so successfully in the hour of need.

RESOLUTION.

In view of his tactful and successful conduct of affairs while acting as temporary secretary of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. the directors hereby express their profound appreciation and thanks to Mr. Charles Barnes and wish him God's speed and blessing in every worthy effort he puts forth.

J. R. HUGHES, Pres.

JONAS WAGNER, Secy.

An Interesting Piece of Ancient History.

The following appeared in the Philadelphia Press Monday in answer to a correspondent and will be interesting to followers of Centre County history. The first named was a Baron in his country of Poland and was supposed to have been banished or voluntarily left on account of political persecution. His body is buried in the Union cemetery here and it is supposed he was a Free Mason as that emblem is on his tombstone. The son Henry P. mentioned was quite a famous surveyor in this country and his tombstone is the monument up on the hill above Milesburg that is so prominently seen from anywhere near there.

Charles Trezlyulny came from Poland in 1791, and was identified with the early settlement of Philipsburg, Pa. He was an engineer of ability, and one of the first canal commissioners of the State (in 1824,) and was a stanch advocate of river improvement in reference to canals. One or more able reports on Mr. Trezlyulny are among the records of Harrisburg. He filled the office of justice of the peace of Centre County, and in June 18, 1833, was appointed the successor of Hamilton Humes in the Bellefonte post office. He died in Bellefonte on the 9th of July, 1851, at the extreme age of 94 years. His wife, Catharine, born in Philadelphia, died July 21, 1858, aged 80 years. Their son, Henry P., who was deputy surveyor of Centre County a number of terms, died at Milesburg, February 21, 1878, aged 78 years. Another son, Hyacinth B., was at his death, April 2, 1862, street commissioner at Bellefonte and superintendent of the water works.

Academy Wins from the Normal.

The Bellefonte Academy defeated the Lock Haven Normal Saturday afternoon in a listless game by the score of 2 to 2. Bolton, the Academy south paw proved a puzzle to the visitors as he has to every team he has faced this year. It took ten innings for Bloomsburg Normal to defeat Lock Haven on Friday at Bloomsburg. The best game of the year will be played on Saturday May 15th at 2 p. m., when Indiana Normal crosses bats with the Academy on the home grounds. This team shut out Westminister College on Friday last by the score of 2 to 0. The Westminister boys did not get a hit off the Indiana pitcher.

The score in Saturday's game was as follows:
